Born and raised in Eastern Oregon, hairdresser for 24 years, from 1981 to 1991 lived in North Pole, AK (lesson learned – never get too close to a bull moose while taking his photo!), moved back to sunshine and warmth in 1992 to Pendleton. I have two wonderful sons (from my first marriage) and daughter-in-laws and seven awesome grandchildren. In 1995, I married Keith Wise, a Methodist minister, and moved to Rupert, Idaho. While in Idaho I worked for Idaho District Court, then Bureau of Reclamation before moving back to Pendleton. I have worked for ARS since 2007. I enjoy riding my horse, gardening, quilting and beading. Keith and I enjoy taking care of our adopted donkey and her baby.
