

Citation for 2010 FRRL Extraordinary Achievement Award

Mr. J. Ramsey Buffham is a person with many talents. Ramsey is highly valued for his hard work and dedication in making his own project operate smoothly. Despite a busy schedule with his own project, Ramsey is always willing and ready to help other projects when extra hands are needed. Many times Ramsey puts his own work on hold to help co-workers in need. Because Ramsey is an experienced electrician, he is routinely asked to consult on various FRRL electrical projects and has successfully wired various buildings, rebuilt motors, and fixed heaters. Because of his numerous exemplary contributions, Ramsey is well deserving of the FRRL Extraordinary Achievement Award.

Nominated by: Ryan Nelson, Craig Rigby, Rob Smith, and Ron Reed
