

Beef is Expensive to Produce on the Northern Great Plains!

- Research to reduce cow input costs by grazing more in the fall and winter while keeping nutrient intake and production adequate or better.

Beef is Expensive to Produce on the Northern Great Plains!

- Research to reduce the cost of growing yearlings in the fall.

Beef is Expensive to Produce on the Northern Great Plains!

- Research to determine if we can add value to beef by enriching it with omega-3 fatty acids or other constituents to make it more desirable to health-conscious consumers.

