

2010 Schedule

Dairy Forage Toolbox Seminars

at World Dairy Expo

(All talks are given in the back end of the Arena Building.)

Wednesday, September 29

10:30 a.m. Getting the most from baleage by knowing what to do when

Kevin Shinnars, Biological Systems Engineer
University of Wisconsin-Madison

1:30 p.m. A new way of looking at bunker silage density

Richard Muck, Agricultural Engineer
U.S. Dairy Forage Research Center, USDA-ARS

Thursday, September 30

10:30 a.m. Can alfalfa compete with corn silage in dairy rations?

Michael Hutjens, Extension Dairy Specialist
University of Illinois

1:30 p.m. Growing grasses for dairy rations

Geoff Brink, Agronomist
U.S. Dairy Forage Research Center, USDA-ARS

Friday, October 1

10:30 a.m. What do the real experts (cows) say about corn silage fiber analyses?

Dave Combs, Dairy Scientist
University of Wisconsin-Madison

1:30 p.m. A primer on rumen microbes, a cow's best friend

Paul Weimer, Microbiologist
U.S. Dairy Forage Research Center, USDA-ARS

Saturday, October 2

10:30 a.m. Factors affecting Relative Forage Quality (RFQ) in hay and haylage

Dan Undersander, Research and Extension Agronomist
University of Wisconsin-Madison

U.S. Dairy Forage
Research Center

USDA-Agricultural Research Service

