

AT DAWSON FETE: Former Congressman E. L. (Tic) Forrester of Leesburg spades the first shovel of dirt for construction of a $619,234 peanut research laboratory in Dawson. Others at the ceremony are (left to right) Earl Glover, Congressman Maston O'Neal, C. L. Peacock, contractor; Joe Cohen of Albany Engineers and Architects which drew the plans. (Herald Staff Photo by Jack Holland)