

Knowledge is Power

Join the BA Diversity Taskforce in celebrating Black History Month with a

Day of SERVICE

Donate grade appropriate books and school supplies for local K-12 schools and Haitian relief efforts

January 22nd through February 10th, 2010

Check for drop boxes at the following locations:

Your institute office

The Area Office

The Log Lodge

NAL Lobby

The Arboretum

See listings for needed supplies

This is totally a volunteer endeavor.

By no means should government funds or materials be used for donations

Questions or concerns?? Please contact the BA Diversity Taskforce at (301)504-6507 or

jenny.allen@ars.usda.gov

*Knowledge is Power
Knowledge is Power*

Suitable books and supplies for BA Diversity Taskforce Supply Drive

January 22nd—February 10th

Age appropriate books, software, or reference material for grades K-12

Teacher supplies such as:

- Copier paper
- Dry erase markers or caulk
- USB drives
- Construction paper

Student supplies such as:

- Composition books
- Notebooks and filler paper
- Pencils and ball point pens
- Crayons (varied sizes)
- Rulers and protractors
- Backpacks
- USB Drives
- Folders
- Erasers
- Index cards
- Glue ( sticks and bottle)
- Scissors
- Storage containers
- Art supplies
- Tissues and hand sanitizer

This is totally a volunteer endeavor. By no means should government funds or materials be used for donations

Questions or concerns?? Please contact the BA Diversity Taskforce at (301)504-6507 or

jenny.allen@ars.usda.gov

*Knowledge is Power
Knowledge is Power*

Bradbury Heights Elementary

Capitol Heights, MD

Copper Lane Elementary

Landover Hills, MD

BA Diversity Taskforce Supply Drive Recipients

Kelly Miller Middle School

Washington, DC

Ballou Senior High School

Washington, DC

