

Ten Little Lab Workers

Ten little lab workers, feeling fit and fine.

One smoked in the solvent room... Now there are nine.

Nine little lab workers, Working so very late,

One forgot the file pull station... Then there were eight .

Eight little lab workers, Dreaming about heaven,

One didn't use a safety shower... Then there were seven.

Seven little lab workers, Liked to play silly tricks,

One poured water to acid... Then there were six.

Six little lab workers, Happy to be alive,

One did not wear eye protection... Then there were five.

Five little lab workers, Wore gloves by the score,

One refused to wear them... Then there were four.

Four little lab workers, Worked by the SOP,

One mixed reactive chemicals... Then there were three.

Three little lab workers, With lots of work to do,

One ignored the MSDS... Then there were two.

Two little lab workers, Liked to have fun,

One ignored the tornado warning... Then there was one.

One little lab worker, Thought of the other nine,

Began to practice safety... Now she's doing fine!
