This is a list, presented alphabetically by author within year of publication, of over 1,600 publications that use or discuss data from USDA's Nationwide Food Surveys (What We Eat in America, Continuing Survey of Food Intakes by Individuals, Diet and Health Knowledge Survey, Nationwide Food Consumption Survey and Household Food Consumption Survey), USDA survey methods or history, or the National Nutrition Monitoring and Related Research Program.

Excluded from this bibliography are the series of reports of Nationwide Food Surveys results published by USDA, as well as the data sets containing survey microdata. For information on reports and data sets, see our website at <http://www.ars.usda.gov/ba/bhnrc/fsrg>.

This may not be an exhaustive list; it includes only those materials of which we are aware. If you know of additional items for inclusion in this list, we would appreciate a copy Please send information to Cecilia Wilkinson Enns at the address above or e-mail to: cecilia.enns@ars.usda.gov.

Articles mentioned in this bibliography should be ordered from your library or directly from the author. Copies are not available from the Food Surveys Research Group.
