

EEO Activities in FY 2012

To celebrate Disability Awareness a group of students visited our lab along with the Director of the PSU Life Link program, Michelle Kump on Tuesday October 25th at 10:00AM. Michelle gave a talk about the program, the Wild Dream Team and introduced the students, some of whom spoke on their experiences here at Penn State. Life Link is a program that helps kids with disabilities experience college life by attending classes and participating in extracurricular activities.

To celebrate African American History Month we watched the movie "The Help"

To celebrate Women's History Month we showed the movie "Ironed Jawed Angels". The movie chronicles the women's suffrage movement from 1910-1920, but please note that this is not a documentary.

In honor of Holocaust Remembrance Day we showed the movie "Paper clips"

To celebrate Asian/Pacific Islander Heritage Month Han Kun, a post doc from China working in our lab, gave a presentation on Chinese culture and Chinese art on May 3, 2012 in the Conference Room.

We celebrated Hispanic Heritage Month by having our 8th Annual Salsa Contest on September 12th while authentic music played in the background.
